The Laurie A. Garlock Memorial Scholarship in Gerontology Education

The University Center for Social and Urban Research (UCSUR) invites you to apply for a $1,000 scholarship to the Graduate Certificate in Gerontology program. This $1,000 annual scholarship was established by UCSUR posthumously to honor Laurie Garlock, a 2008 graduate of the certificate program. The scholarship will be applied to the 2017-18 academic year.

Applications are encouraged from students who:

- currently are enrolled in the Graduate Certificate in Gerontology program
- exhibit characteristics that support the legacy of Laurie Garlock, which include compassion, empathy, and love for the elderly.
- maintain at least a 3.5 GPA.

The application will consist of a letter of intent and two letters of recommendation. Application deadline is August 7, 2017 submitted to Jen Bissell at the address below.

The Graduate Certificate in Gerontology program is a collaboration of the Aging Institute of UPMC Senior Services and the University of Pittsburgh, the University Center for Social and Urban Research, and the College of General Studies.
